Tom Wolf's Idea of Transparency

From The Chairman

Dear Friends,

When Coronavirus came to Pennsylvania and we needed leadership to keep people safe, Tom Wolf did the opposite. When we needed a transparent plan to keep businesses and schools safely open, Tom Wolf did the opposite. When we had to protect our most vulnerable citizens in nursing homes, Tom Wolf did the opposite. When it came to planning the rollout of the life saving vaccine, Tom Wolf did the opposite. In the months leading up to the vaccine rollout, Tom Wolf failed to develop ANY plan whatsoever.

Ultimately, when it came to failed leadership, the inability to plan, providing transparency and science-based decision making, Tom Wolf put on a clinic in abject failure.

In fact, the only clinic Tom Wolf hasn't prepared is an actual vaccine clinic to save people's lives.

Tom Wolf's Deadly COVID-19 Plans and Policies: A Primer

Early in the crisis, Wolf's health department forced nursing homes to admit COVID-19 positive patients. The death rate in Pennsylvania nursing homes skyrocketed to one of the highest in the nation. At one point, nursing home deaths accounted for an incredible 70% of all COVID-19 related

While people died, Tom Wolf's health secretary, Rachel Levine, quietly moved her own mother out of a nursing home and into a luxury hotel. You can't make this up, folks, she actually moved her mom out of a nursing home while forcing others to put their loved ones into one.

When it came to supporting businesses through the pandemic, Tom Wolf continued to fail us. His repeated orders to close businesses were made without the benefit of science, transparency, and even reality. Conflicting and everchanging directives caused an incredible amount of confusion among business owners.

Restaurants had to deal with particularly confusing directives from Tom Wolf. Indoor or outdoor only seating? Delivery? Sit at the bar? The lack of consistency and communication devastated our restaurant industry.

Perhaps the biggest failure of all was Tom Wolf's refusal to provide an inch of clarity or to answer any questions. The majority of the press events held by Tom Wolf and Rachel Levine ended without them taking any questions or with them taking a very limited amount of questions with no opportunity for the media to follow up with them.

Take a look at the news stories posted to the left of this letter. These are just a sample of what was and is still being written about Tom wolf's failures.

While you're at it, click the button below to read the incredible report detailing the massive failure of Tom Wolf's business waiver program. Considering it came from a Democrat Auditor General, it is something to behold.

Oh, for anyone wondering why John Fetterman wasn't mentioned here, it's because while Tom Wolf was failing at every turn, our Lt. Governor didn't do a thing. He was busy redecorating his office with a marijuana flag.

Sincerely,

Sam

Levine Not Answering Questions.
