Sometimes I feel like the old man in the Simpsons yelling at clouds when I ask people to get involved. People hear me but they just walk on by. At the risk of someone thinking I'm Homer Simpson's dad, here I go again.

Nothing changes if someone doesn't change it. It's not just done by magic.

Frustrated with taxes? Angry that your local government isn't focusing on the issues important to your family and community? Crime on the rise? Angry that your kids aren't back in school? Furious because you can't find a COVID-19 vaccine?

There is actually something you can do. You can get involved. Host a candidate meet and greet, make calls to your neighbors, help knock on a few of your neighbors' doors, put up a lawn sign.

Dear Friends,

The last several weeks I have used this space to point out the legislative failures, failed policies, and failed vision of state and national Democrats. It's incredible to believe the amount of material Governor Wolf, Nancy Pelosi, and their pals have given me.

But today we're going to talk about something different. Today we're going to talk about some great news.

Capitalizing on the incredible successes RCAC enjoyed in our State Senate and State House races in 2020, RCAC has recruited and filed a record number of candidates for all offices across Allegheny County.

At last tally, we were approaching 500 Republican Candidates who filed to run for local and county offices. That is the largest number of candidates in recent history.

It is a testament to the hard work of these candidates and to the local chairs and committees that take their job seriously. I can't thank these men and women enough for taking the bold step of putting their names on the ballots to make our communities better places to live, work, and raise a family.

In the coming weeks I will be highlighting some of the talented involved!

In Memoriam

John F. "Jack" Bright

Jack served on the Edgewood Borough Council for the past 12 years and took special pride in expanding the fun at the annual Community Day activities. He was involved in many Republican organizations including his service as the long-time chair of the Edgewood Republican Committee and was well known as an enthusiastic grassroots organizer of numerous election campaigns. He was tireless in his devotion to all these activities. In his scant leisure time, he enjoyed being an outdoorsman.

We send our condolences to his two sons, Frederick and Alfram, as well as his twin brother, Bill, and the entire Bright family.

Terry McVerry

We were sorry to learn of the recent death of one of the most distinguished Republican officials from Allegheny County. Terry McVerry served for a dozen years as a State Representative, and candidates we have throughout the county.

Getting on the ballot was only the first step in this battle. Now we change our focus to bringing our positive message of better, stronger, and a more transparent government to each and every voter.

From top to bottom, County Chair down to the newest committee person, RCAC is a 100% volunteer organization. Those of us involved in this worthy fight for our communities do it out of a sense of commitment and a true belief that just one man or one woman can make a difference.

Even so, running a full time political party operation is costly. Yard signs, handout materials, mailers, postage, pins, and much more add to the standard cost that any political party encounters.

If you are able, please click the link below to make your own financial commitment to our fight. With your help we will be better armed for the fight ahead. We need your help!

I thank you in advance for your financial assistance. And as always, thank you for what you do for the Republican Party.

Sincerely,

Sam

Our condolences to his wife Judy—a political force in her own right—and to his family and many friends.
