American Lands Council (ALC) is a 501(c)(4) non-profit organization engaged in advocating for legislation, litigation, and policies to improve access, health, and productivity on public lands. Membership dues to ALC may qualify as tax deductible business expenditures in some cases but are not considered charitable contributions for tax deduction purposes. Our affiliate, American Lands Council Foundation (ALCF), is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization capable of accepting tax deductible charitable contributions for related education and research projects. Consult your legal or tax professional to verify deduction eligibility.
