Sign a Petition. Save an Animal.

Dear Mayor de Blasio,

We are Janelle Babington and Penny Eims, animal welfare petitioners with AnimalVictory.org. In August, we created a petition after a disturbing video was distributed on social media showing a mob of people viciously attacking a raccoon. The cruel incident allegedly took place in New York City, though exactly where is unknown. The footage was uploaded to Twitter and allegedly filmed by someone going by the name of "James Blue."

The footage shows the raccoon being intentionally run over, and then bludgeoned with a baseball bat. The mob shows no mercy to the small animal and nobody tries to intervene on its behalf.

Over 15,500 people signed our petition (Please see link below for signatures and comments) asking for a full investigation into this horrific situation. Thousands of people are hopeful that law enforcement in the area will look into this situation and attempt to bring forth charges against the people who were involved. We take cases of animal cruelty seriously and are hopeful that your city does as well. We look forward to hearing back from your office about this troubling incident.

With gratitude,

Janelle Babington and Penny Eims
