

1. Charge Sebastian Acosta with one count felony animal cruelty for each puppy that he bludgeoned.
2. Instruct the prosecutor to seek the maximum felony penalty ten years imprisonment to run consecutively, not concurrently, for each felony animal cruelty charge.
3. Impose bond stipulations and probation restrictions that require Sebastian Acosta to not be in possession of any animals, nor reside in any domicile containing an animal.
4. Instruct the prosecutor to refuse to abate or “bargain away” charges or sentencing in exchange for information or a “plea.”
