PROSECUTOR'S NEWSLETTER

On July 16, 2020, a Fulton County Common Pleas Court jury found Theresa Taylor, age 64, of Bryan, Ohio, guilty of five counts of Cruelty to a Companion Animal.

A Fulton County Grand Jury had previously indicted Ms. Taylor for the August 13 through August 29, 2019 offenses, when she was the owner of a dog kennel, she did torment, cruelly beat, and did commit acts of cruelty against dogs.

The jury of 8 men and 4 women deliberated approximately three and a half hours before returning their guilty verdict. The case was prosecuted by Fulton County Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Paul H. Kennedy, and Ms. Taylor was represented by Whitehouse attorney, Joseph Urenovitch.

This charge was the result of an investigation conducted by the Fulton County Dog Warden.
