Dear Tiffany Noble,

It's our understanding that Casper Ingram will be in court on April 26,2021. At this time we are sending you 24,639 signatures and comments from angry supporters who would like to see the maximum punishment imposed on Casper Ingram and his wife Celeste.

Would you kindly send us the courtesy of a reply after the court so we may keep our supporters informed? We absolutely appreciate your time on this very important animal abuse case and will follow-up as need be.

Sincerely,

Janelle Babington and Penny Eims
