

A Joint Order to Declare a State of Exception

---

IN THE Twelfth UNDERGRADUATE SENATE

31 MARCH 2017

Speaker of the Undergraduate Senate Noah Glen Wills

Pursuant to Article IX, Section 10 of the Bylaws of the American University Student Government, granting the President of Student Government and the Speaker of the Undergraduate Senate the ability to declare a State of Exception:

Be it ordered, that the American University Student Government will be in a State of Exception, which shall take effect immediately until terminated by the President of the Student Government within fourteen (14) days.

Be it further ordered, that pursuant to Article IX, Section 10, subsection ii, granting State of Exceptions the ability to supersede the Bylaws of the Student Government in cases not relating to impeachment and removal from office, votes of no-confidence, and the basic structure of Student Government, the Judicial Register shall be considered void.

Be it further ordered, that a Special Meeting of the Undergraduate Senate will take place within forty-eight (48) hours as called by the Speaker of the Undergraduate Senate, unless the President of Student Government terminates the State of Exception before the Special Meeting.

Be it further ordered, that this order takes concurrent effect with Executive Order 16-17-003 signed by Devontae Torriente, the President of the Student Government.

Noah Glen Wills

Speaker of the Undergraduate Senate