

AUSTRALIA SHOULD BE A REPUBLIC

“AUSTRALIA SHOULD HAVE A HEAD OF STATE WHO LIVES HERE AND IS PROUD TO BE AN AUSTRALIAN”

It is time for Australia to be fully independent. Becoming a republic is about national pride and, in a country that believes in a fair go, the opportunity for our head of state to be one of us.

The Queen of England still holds the top job as Australia’s head of state. She’ll soon give that job to Prince Charles. If we don’t become a republic, we get no say in who comes next.

BENEFITS OF A REPUBLIC

- ➡ A head of state who will always put Australia first
- ➡ A head of state who lives here and represents our values
- ➡ The opportunity to choose for ourselves who our head of state is
- ➡ The Constitution will be 100% independent
- ➡ Aussie kids can aspire to the top job
