WHAT IS BHA?  WHAT DOES IT DO?

Backcountry Hunters & Anglers is a 501(c)3 nonprofit organization that educates on private donations for our organizations work on public lands. BHA is locally focused and represented on the ground every day. In Fiscal Year 2016 our revenue was $1,945,531 and expenses were $1,782,505. We distributed 88 percent of our budget to programs and 12 percent to administration and fundraising. Backcountry Hunters & Anglers is a 501(c)3 nonprofit organization that educates on private donations for our organizations work on public lands. BHA is locally focused and represented on the ground every day. In Fiscal Year 2016 our revenue was $1,945,531 and expenses were $1,782,505. We distributed 88 percent of our budget to programs and 12 percent to administration and fundraising. Backcountry Hunters & Anglers is a 501(c)3 nonprofit organization that educates on private donations for our organizations work on public lands. BHA is locally focused and represented on the ground every day. In Fiscal Year 2016 our revenue was $1,945,531 and expenses were $1,782,505. We distributed 88 percent of our budget to programs and 12 percent to administration and fundraising. Backcountry Hunters & Anglers is a 501(c)3 nonprofit organization that educates on private donations for our organizations work on public lands. BHA is locally focused and represented on the ground every day. In Fiscal Year 2016 our revenue was $1,945,531 and expenses were $1,782,505. We distributed 88 percent of our budget to programs and 12 percent to administration and fundraising. Backcountry Hunters & Anglers is a 501(c)3 nonprofit organization that educates on private donations for our organizations work on public lands. BHA is locally focused and represented on the ground every day. In Fiscal Year 2016 our revenue was $1,945,531 and expenses were $1,782,505. We distributed 88 percent of our budget to programs and 12 percent to administration and fundraising.