ORDERS

An employer who fails to comply with Part 3 of the Workers Compensation Act, the Occupational Health & Safety Regulation, or WorkSafeBC orders may be subject to monetary or other sanctions as prescribed by the Workers Compensation Act.

Orders - Full DetailsOrder No.1 Status: CompliedCited: OHS4.29(b)*Progress towards compliance:

Oct 30, 2015 - According to the employers Notice of Compliance the employer has taken actions including moving the microwaves to a secured location to which inmates do not have unsupervised access.

Initiating order:

A joint risk assessment determined that a risk of violence emanating from uncontrolled inmate use of microwave ovens is present at this workplace and the employer has not taken sufficient steps to minimize the risk to workers.

This is in contravention of the Occupational Health and Safety Regulation Section 4.29(b).

If a risk of injury to workers from violence is identified by an assessment performed under section 4.28 the employer must, if elimination of the risk to workers is not possible, establish procedures, policies and work environment arrangements to minimize the risk to workers.

Measures to Ensure Compliance:

The employer is to submit a report to this officer of interim actions taken to minimize the risk to workers by October 14, 2015. An additional report of long term corrective actions is to be submitted to this officer by November 9, 2015.

Pursuant to section 194 (1) of the Workers Compensation Act, the employer must prepare a Notice of Compliance report. In accordance with section 194 (2), this report must detail what has been done to comply with the order, and where compliance has not been achieved by the time the report has been submitted, include a plan of what will be done to comply and when compliance will be achieved. Please submit the report no later than October 14, 2015 (interim) and November 9, 2015 (final)
