18. GENERAL

(a) No agreements contrary to the collective agreement or general policy of the union shall be entered into by this component, its locals, bargaining units, bargaining councils or any of its members. This component and its locals shall not affiliate with any other organization without express written authority from the provincial executive.

(b) Members wishing to charge other member(s) with a breach of duty of the constitution and bylaws shall do so pursuant to Article 7 of the union's constitution.

- (c) These bylaws may be altered or amended by a majority vote of those members of the local present at a meeting, providing that notice of motion has been served at least 14 days prior to the meeting.

- (d) These bylaws and subsequent amendments must be submitted through the component to the constitution & structure committee for recommendation to the executive committee and to the provincial executive for approval.

APPENDIX AUnion policy regarding changing of local boundaries

The provincial executive at its regularly scheduled meeting held March 16, 1978 adopted the following procedure for the changing of local boundaries. This policy has been adopted in response to the change in the constitution and the commitment made at the 1977 BCGEU convention to provide a method by which locals could alter their boundaries to better serve the needs of the membership.

1. The local wishing to change its boundaries shall serve the appropriate component with a notice of motion containing the reasons why the request is being made, and reasonable proof that the proposed change is endorsed by the majority of the local membership affected.
2. The motion referred to in (1) above must provide the component with specific information on the change requested, including a description of the proposed new boundaries.
3. The component, after considering the foregoing motion and hearing the views of the other local(s) affected, will refer the matter to the constitution & structure committee with a recommendation for or against the change.
4. The constitution & structure committee, upon receiving a request for a local boundary change endorsed by the appropriate component, will have the committee secretary obtain a joint report from the area representatives concerned.
5. After considering all available information, the constitution & structure committee will make the appropriate recommendations to the provincial executive for action.

This policy has been formulated not to discourage locals from changing their boundaries, but to ensure that the rights and wishes of all the members concerned are fully protected. The provincial executive considers the changing of local boundaries to be an important matter, and a great deal of care must be taken before any binding decisions are made.

All locals considering changing their boundaries should pay special attention to the section of the policy which requires proof that the membership affected are involved in the decision and have an opportunity to have their views heard.
