Inspection Text

Issued on: 2008/03/18

This was a follow-up inspection report to authenticate appropriate compliance with the order noted on Inspection Report #2008158910029.

On February 9, 2008 inmates at this correctional centre took part in a disturbance that resulted in injury to at least one worker. Extensive damage occurred to the facility and the assistance of, in part, RCMP emergency response teams, BC Corrections tactical units, fire department and ambulance personnel were utilized to return control to the correctional facility.

The employer has completed a thorough incident investigation with involvement of worker representatives from the joint health and safety committee and including, in part, interview of several witnesses and other persons involved.

Review of the incident investigation determines it meets or exceeds all requirements of OH&S Regulation 3.4. Therefore, the directive order on Inspection Report #2008158910029 has now met compliance.

An electronic copy of the incident investigation will be attached to this Inspection Report.
