They make sure new employees sign union membership cards and provide information on BCGEU services. Stewards conduct ratification votes and elections and keep members informed by distributing BCGEU communication.

What skills do I need to be a Steward? Stewards are well-organized, good listeners, problem solvers and team players. They have good communication skills and want to help others.

Is there training for new Stewards? Yes! Stewards are eligible for paid union leave from work to take steward training every year at their area office. The BCGEU also offers workshops on human rights, facing management, and accommodating disabilities at the workplace.

How do I become a Steward? Steward elections are informal. A union member from your workplace must nominate you using the Steward Nomination Form.

If you have any questions about the nominations, please call me at 604-215-1499.
