

CLAIRE YICK

Background

- Former public interest environmental lawyer
- Master in Environmental Studies and law degree (MES/JD) at York University and Osgoode Hall Law School.
- Undergraduate degrees in biology (Queen's University) and environmental science (Carleton University)

Diversity and Inclusion/GBA+

- Participant and panelist for the BCCGEU LGBTQI2S+ Roundtable (2020)
- Currently serving on the Board of Directors for Pride At Work Canada, a national non-profit promoting inclusiveness for LGBTQI2S+ people in the workplace
- GBA+ Advisor with the Gender Equity Office; participant on Inter-Ministry Diversity and Inclusion Working Group within BC Public Service (BCPS)
- Co-founder of BCPS-wide LGBTQI2S+ employee resource group (ERG)
- Chair the Out On Bay Street Annual Conference run by Start Proud in Toronto (2015)
- Moderator the panels "Let's Talk: Overcoming Triple Jeopardy" (experiences of queer women of colour); and "Inclusivity in the Workplace"
- Previous executive member of the Sexual Orientation and Gender Identity Community (SOGIC) sections with the Ontario Bar Association and the Canadian Bar Association

Pronouns: she/her

Senior Policy Analyst,
Ministry of Environment and
Climate Change Strategy,
Climate Action Secretariat

BCGEU member since 2017
Component 20

Applying for BCGEU Equity and
Human Rights Committee

