I've been working in security for 40 years.
I've been w/ gateway for 8 years

My years of "Customer Service is beyond reproach! In the 8 years with the company, I've been subjected to innuendo & speculation many times. I've been "written-up" so many times it takes two SSM's to carry my file.

I have the tenacity of a wolverine; I'm the size of a grizzly bear and have the heart of a lion.

These negotiations are always a "Battle of Wills" otherwise know as "a fight". In all the times I've been witness to the company, they never offered any real money. Case in point, March 1, 2016 I/we all got 10 cent raises.

I say "No more 10 cent raises" It's the 21st century. Maybe they could accept 10 cent raises for themselves.

If it's a fight they want, who better to send into battle than me? I've got the abilities to win physical battles but my biggest muscles are in the brain!

Im asking you to "send me their way"

Love Jeffrey E Carlson
