Re: Bargaining Committee/ Call for Nominations

With Raymond Matte acclaimed as a member of your new BCGEU bargaining committee, there is still one spot left to be filled before we can hit the negotiating table with your employer to renew your recently expired collective agreement.

Serving as a committee member is an important role to take on. Its rewarding, challenging work that comes with training and paid union leave.

We just need one more person!

Any member of the BCGEU working at Auburn Seniors Village can serve on the committee. If you are interested in taking on this important role, or want to nominate someone, please fill out the nomination form attached to this bulletin. Nominations close on Friday April 20, 2018 and can be faxed to 604.294.5092/toll free 1.800.946.0249 or emailed to Chad McQuarrie at chad.mcquarrie@bcgeu.ca

If more than one person is nominated, an election will be held to determine who will sit on the committee

Finally, although your current collective agreement expired in December 2017, its terms and conditions remain in full force and effect until a new agreement has been negotiated and ratified by the membership.

In Solidarity,

Chad McQuarrie, Staff Representative Negotiations
