Re: Collective Bargaining – Small Business BC

Your collective agreement is expiring on March 31, 2021, and I am the BCGEU Staff Representative that will be working with your bargaining committee to negotiate a new one.

Beginning in the New Year, I will be sending out a notice to elect your bargaining committee. Your bargaining committee is normally comprised of two members and will sit at the table with the Employer to negotiate a new collective agreement. Please consider running for one of the bargaining committee positions.

I will soon be sending you an invitation to a Zoom meeting to be held at 5:15 pm on January 6, 2020, at which we will discuss the bargaining process and your priorities. And, early in the New Year I will be sending you a bargaining survey, and look forward to receiving feedback on what bargaining items you consider important.

In advance of the Zoom meeting and the bargaining survey I invite you speak with your fellow members about what you think your bargaining priorities should be, and please review the current collective agreement at the link below.

Looking forward to meeting you all in 2021.

In solidarity,

Anne Dodington
Staff Representative
