Positive Discipline

Tuesday, March 6
6:30 pm

Move away from punishment and toward using encouragement, consequences, limits and agreements, for an approach to discipline that stimulates cooperation and self-restraint.

For more than 30 years, PEP has offered positive parenting education and support to parents throughout Montgomery County, Northern Virginia and Washington, DC. Like all PEP programs, this talk will give you insights into ways to use positive, encouraging methods with children that gain cooperation, teach respect and responsibility, and bring out the best in you and your child.
