Grow 1 Save 2

B4B is an organization committed to raising awareness about the risks associated with testicular cancer. How do we do it? We grow beards!

Every January we stop shaving, have fun with the event, track our progress online, and raise funds to support the research efforts at the Indiana University Simon Cancer Center.

Check us out online to learn about our founder's personal battle and survival, and see how you can get involved to help support this very worthwhile cause.
