

BICN Membership Application

Members of BICN and its Advisory Council bring a wide range of talents and perspectives to BICN's work as well as ensuring greater public accountability. Members are expected to provide advice, input and feedback to the Board, on an ad hoc basis as availability and circumstances permit, and to vote at AGMs or other meetings that they may call. Members provide avenues for communication and information flow between the Board and growing local, sectoral and other networks. Once a Membership application is approved, fees are payable within one month. Fees range from $20 to $200 annually, with the understanding that Members with greater financial resources will voluntarily make payment at the higher end.

The deadline for receipt of applications is April 8, 2016. Please submit your completed application to info@basicincomecanada.org. You can also contact us at that address if you have any questions and we'd be happy to help.

1. Please briefly describe your involvement with basic income, such as:

- how you became interested;
- what informs your perspectives most;
- what particular skills, experience and expertise you bring to the basic income movement;
- how your involvement in a particular sector or membership in a certain population group adds to a better understanding of inequality, poverty, income security and related issues in Canada;
- what capacity you have to gather information from, and disseminate it to, others in your community of interest.

2. If you are applying to represent a local group, region or other constituency, please add a sentence or two describing it, including location, how many members, and what types of activities it undertakes. Please also provide the name, email and phone number of a local group organizer or official who can confirm that the applicant represents the group.
