About Sean Bielat

Businessman. Family man. Leader. Marine.

Sean Bielat is a businessman, family man and serves in the U.S. Marine Corps Reserve. He currently runs an online start-up, www.OneClickPolitics.com. Prior to his 2010 campaign against Barney Frank, Sean led a $100 million defense robotics program at iRobot Corporation and was a management consultant at McKinsey & Company.

Sean's Background

The son of a teacher and a veteran, Sean grew up in a middle class family and worked his way through college and graduate school with the help of the GI Bill, scholarships and student loans. Sean holds an MBA from Wharton School of Business and degrees from Harvard University and Georgetown University.

Sean and his wife, Hope, met in graduate school at Harvard and have been married for six years. They live in Norfolk with their toddler son, Theodore, infant daughter, Seraphina, and rescue cat, Coolidge. Sean is a member of the Knights of Columbus and the Council on Emerging National Security Affairs.

Sean's Views

Like most Americans, Sean wants to restore America's greatness and get our economy back on track. As a middle class father and husband, he understands the challenges facing most families and his views resonate with people across the Fourth District. His experience and accomplishments have shaped these beliefs:

- As a businessman, Sean believes in focusing on economic growth and fiscal responsibility.
- As a Marine, Sean believes in peace through strength.
- As an American, he believes in a return to Constitutional values and citizen-legislators.
- As a husband and father, Sean believes that we need to give our kids the same opportunities we had by reforming programs like Social Security and Medicare in order to protect them.

Sean's Qualifications & Experience

Sean's career highlights include:

- Major in the U.S. Marine Corps Reserve
