The Rules

Keeping clean looking after equipment

What's the problem?	How does it affect the club?	What's the rule?
Shoes and chairs in the soft play area.	Damages the mats and soft play equipment. Makes the area dirty, especially for babies and toddlers.	Put shoes in the box provided. Keep the chairs off the mats.
Food debris in the toys and on equipment, spilt drinks.	Spilt drinks are a slip hazard and upsetting to children who fall in it. Food and old food can be picked up and cause food poisoning.	Food and drinks only to be consumed at a table.
Poop in the loo.	Its stinky and the volunteers have to clean it up.	Ensure children are accompanied to the toilet.

Keeping children from harm

What's the problem?	How does it affect the club?	What's the rule?
Children in the kitchen and in the adult toilet.	Both the toilet and kitchen have water heaters that can scald produce boiling water.	Never let children in the adult toilet or kitchen areas, keep the gate and doors locked and bolted at all times.
Children in the toy cupboard or container.	Falling hazards and getting locked in.	Ensure children are supervised at all times, never go into the storage container or toy cupboard.
People making food/ cutting food in 'kitchen'.	We do not have the facilities to prepare food. The kitchen is only available for teas and coffees. Food contamination, lack of cleanliness and food poisoning are real risks.	Never prepare food at the Big Red Club. This includes all cutting of any food stuff.

Staying safe and respecting others

What's the problem?	How does it affect the club?	What's the rule?
Adults on their phones or electronic devices.	Children being unattended having accidents or disagreements.	No phones or electronic devices
Adults taking pictures of children.	Families may unwittingly post pictures of other people's online. It's just no fun for children being asked to pose for pictures.	No phones or electronic devices

I have been read and will comply with the rules of The Big Red Bus Club
