When my daughter Brooke died of a drug overdose, I fought to pass the Good Samaritan Bill which has helped save hundreds of lives. As your Senator I will continue fighting for the people of our district for pay equity, funding the women's health care bill, rebuilding our infrastructure, and reasonable gun laws in addition to finding a cure for opioid addiction and treatment for those who battle this insidious disease that now claims more lives of people under the age of 50 than any other cause of death.

I am running against Tom Kean, Jr., the Minority Leader in the Senate, a man who has been a legislator for the last 16 years.

Under his leadership, we have no equal pay for equal work or women's health care bill. Most of our district has lost its Homestead Rebate and we have no new tunnel into New York City. Our economy has been the slowest to bounce back after the recession, with 11 downgrades to our credit rating. We have yet to see him distance himself from Christie's failed agenda. With his A+ rating from the NRA, he has left us less safe in our state - rejecting both reasonable mental health background checks and reducing the amount of ammunition in a magazine.

Working together we can return New Jersey to its place as a leader in the nation of sustainable energy development and production. Together we can work to heal the fractures that divide us and wreak havoc on our taxes and services. Together we can make New Jersey work for us instead of special interest groups.

As to my background, I am a mom, wife, musician, and attorney who has fought for clients in cases as high as the 2nd and 3rd circuits. I am an independent thinker and frank speaker who won't be beholden to petty politics.
