Linda is an attorney, retired teacher and two-term Mayor in Oakland, a town where she has lived for over 40 years and has raised her children. Linda has her BA from Queens College, MS from Brooklyn College and her JD from City University of New York. From her time as Mayor, to mentoring high school students, to practicing family and divorce law, Linda believes in the value of public education, and giving back to her community. She is also a Planning Board and Zoning Board of Adjustments member.

Linda has her own General Practice Law office located on Ramapo Valley Road in Oakland. She is admitted to the bars in NJ, NY, D.C. and United States Supreme Court. She was also a Municipal Prosecutor and Oakland Public Defender for four years. Linda is the past President of the Bergen County Bar Association and Women Lawyers in Bergen Bar Association. She also serves her time as a Pro Bono attorney for victims of domestic violence in Bergen County (ADV) and the NJSBA Military Legal Assistance Program.

“I am running for State Senate because, as the two-term Mayor of Oakland, I understand how to be responsive to the needs of residents. When my town faced overdevelopment, I stood on the front line to preserve our open space. When residents were concerned about council accountability, I championed taping council meeting and making them available online for those who could not attend. Government is about responsiveness and solving problems. That’s what I’ll bring to Trenton”.
