(a) to confirm the minutes of the last preceding annual general meeting and of any general meeting held since that meeting;

(b) to receive from the committee, auditor and employees of the Association reports on the transactions of the Association during the last preceding financial year;

(c) to elect the officers of the Association and the ordinary committee members;

(d) to appoint the auditor and determine his or her remuneration;

(e) to determine the remuneration of employees of the Association.

(6) The annual general meeting may transact special business of which notice is given in accordance with these rules.

12. Special general meetings

(1) The committee may convene a special general meeting of the Association at any time.

(2) The committee, on the requisition in writing of at least 10 members, may convene a special general meeting of the Association.

(3) A requisition for a special general meeting –

(a) is to state the objects of the meeting; and

(b) is to be signed by the requisitionists; and

(c) is to be deposited at the office of the Association; and

(d) may consist of several documents, each signed by one or more of the requisitionists.

(4) If the committee does not cause a special general meeting to be held within 21 days from the day on which a requisition is deposited at the office of the Association, the requisitionists, or any of them, may convene the meeting within 3 months from the day of the deposit of the requisition.

(5) A special general meeting convened by requisitionists is to be convened in the same manner as nearly as possible as meetings are convened by the committee.

(6) All reasonable expenses incurred by requisitionists in convening a special general meeting are to be refunded by the Association.

13. Notices of general meetings

The public officer of the Association, at least 14 days before the date fixed for holding a general meeting of the Association, is to cause notice to be given to each member by post or by email –

(a) specifying the place, day and time for the holding of the meeting; and

(b) the nature of the business to be transacted at the meeting.

14. Business and quorum at general meetings

(1) All business transacted at a general meeting, except the ordinary business of the annual general meeting, is special business.

(2) Business is not to be transacted at a general meeting unless a quorum of members entitled to vote is present at the time the meeting is considering that business.

(3) A quorum for the transaction of the business of a general meeting is 10 members present and entitled to vote.

(4) If a quorum is not present one hour after the appointed time for the commencement of a general meeting, the meeting –

(a) if convened on the requisition of members, is to be dissolved; or

(b) in any other case, is to be adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time at the same place.

(5) If at an adjourned meeting a quorum is not present one hour after the time appointed for the commencement of the meeting, the meeting is to be dissolved.

(6) The chairperson, by written notice or at the time of the adjournment, may specify another place to which a meeting is to be adjourned.

15. President to preside at general meetings

(1) The president, or in his or her absence, the vice-president, is to preside as chairperson at every general meeting of the Association.

(2) If the president and vice-president are absent from a general meeting, the members present are to elect one of their number to preside as chairperson.

16. Adjournment of general meetings

(1) The chairperson of a general meeting at which a quorum is present may, with the consent of the meeting, adjourn the meeting from time to time and place to place, but no business is to be transacted at an adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting at which the adjournment took place.

(2) If a meeting is adjourned for 14 days or more, the notice of the adjourned meeting is to be given in the same manner as the notice of the original meeting.

(3) It is not necessary to give any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.

17. Determination of questions arising at general meetings

(1) A question arising at a general meeting of the Association is to be determined on a show of hands.

(2) Unless before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands a poll is demanded, a declaration by the chairperson that a resolution has, on a show of hands, been carried, or carried unanimously, or carried by a particular majority, or lost, and an entry to that effect in the minute book of the Association is evidence of the fact, without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of, or against, that resolution.

18. Votes

(1) On any question arising at a general meeting of the Association, a member has one vote only.

(2) All votes are to be given personally.

(3) In the case of an equality of voting on a question, the chairperson has a second or casting vote.

19. Taking of poll

If at a meeting a poll on any question is demanded –

(a) it is to be taken at that meeting in the manner the chairperson directs; and

(b) the result of the poll is taken to be the resolution of the meeting on that question.

20. When poll to be taken

(1) A poll that is demanded on the election of a chairperson, or on a question of adjournment, is to be taken immediately.

(2) A poll that is demanded on any other question is to be taken at any time before the close of the meeting as the chairperson directs.

21. Affairs of Association to be managed by a committee

(1) The affairs of the Association are to be managed by a committee of management constituted as provided in rule 23.

(2) The committee –

(a) is to control and manage the business and affairs of the Association; and

The Bob Brown Foundation Gift Fund

37. (1) If this clause 37 is inconsistent with any other clause of these rules, this clause 37 prevails to the extent of the inconsistency.

(2) The association establishes and will maintain a public fund, called the ‘Bob Brown Foundation Gift Fund’, for the specific purpose of supporting the environmental objects/purposes of the association. The Bob Brown Foundation Gift Fund (the “Fund”) is established to receive all gifts of money or property for this purpose and any money received because of such gifts must be credited to its bank account. The Fund must not receive any other money or property into its account and it must comply with subdivision 30-E of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997.

(3) Rules governing the Fund:

(a) The objective of the Fund is to support the association’s environmental purposes.

(b) Members of the public are to be invited to make gifts of money or property to the Fund for the environmental purposes of the association.

(c) Money from interest on donations, income derived from donated property, and money from the realization of such property is to be deposited into the Fund.

(d) A separate bank account is to be opened to deposit money donated to the Fund, including interest accruing thereon, and gifts to it are to be kept separate from other funds of the association.

(e) Receipts are to be issued in the name of the Fund and proper accounting records and procedures are to be kept and used for the Fund.

(f) The Fund will be operated on a not-for-profit basis.

(g) A committee of management of no fewer than three persons will administer the Fund. The committee will be appointed by the association. A majority of the members of the committee are required to be ‘responsible persons’ as defined by the Guidelines to the Register of Environmental Organisations.

(4) Additional provisions in relation to the Fund:

(a) The association must inform the Commonwealth Department responsible for the environment as soon as possible if it changes its name or the name of the Fund; or there is any change to the membership of the management committee of the Fund; or there has been any departure from the model rules for public funds.

(b) The association agrees to comply with any rules that the Treasurer and the Minister with responsibility for the environment may make to ensure that gifts made to the Fund are only used for its principal purpose.

(c) The income and property of the association shall be used and applied solely in promotion of its objects and no portion shall be distributed, paid or transferred directly or indirectly by way of dividend, bonus or by way of profit to members, directors, or trustees of the association.

(d) Any allocation of funds or property to other persons or organization will be made in accordance with the established purposes of the association and not be influenced by the preference of the donor.

(e) In case of the winding-up of the Fund, any surplus assets are to be transferred to the Tasmanian Conservation Trust Inc and the Tasmanian Land Conservancy in equal shares, providing they are on the Register of Environmental Organisations. If transfer to either or both the Tasmanian Conservation Trust Inc and /or the Tasmanian Land Conservancy is not possible, then to another fund with similar objectives that is on the Register of Environmental Organisations.

(f) Statistical information requested by the Department on donations to the Fund will be provided within four months of the end of the financial year. An Audited financial statement for the association and the Fund will be supplied with the annual statistical return. The statement will provide information on the expenditure of public fund monies and the management of public fund assets.
