

TAKAYNA
ARTIVISM:
26-28
JUNE

A TWO- DAY VIRTUAL FESTIVAL CELEBRATING ART, ACTIVISM & PLANET EARTH

BOB BROWN
FOUNDATION
ACTION FOR EARTH

How to use this schedule:

For workshops with limited spaces, click the link to sign up to the workshop before the day.

For anything else, simply click the link at the scheduled time and it will take you straight to the session!

FRIDAY

6pm – 7.30pm

Action for Earth: Music for Change

Join Bob Brown and a range of special guests for a conversation and concert that celebrates the power of activism for planet Earth. Guests include Shane Howard, Adalita and Neil Murray with more to be announced!

Spaces limited.

Register here:

https://us02web.zoom.us/webinar/register/WN_SpTxXYZMRp-1fbs417FkcA

SATURDAY

10am – 11am

Writing to Save a Landscape Panel

Join nationally acclaimed writers Alice Hungerford and Nola Firth as they discuss with us the importance of writing and telling stories in environmental campaigns.

<https://us02web.zoom.us/j/88931243579>

11.30am – 12pm

Tarkine in Motion Artist Talk – Colin Schildhauer

Tune in to hear Tarkine in Motion artist Colin Schildhauer talk about his plein air art practice, and his body of work that evokes themes of wilderness and the impact of climate change.

<https://us02web.zoom.us/j/89936853599>

12.30pm – 1.30pm

takayna Downpour

An immersive rainscape using found sound and instruments with Kate Tempny.

Join us for this interactive workshop/performance to create a rainscape and melody using found sound and instruments at home.

SATURDAY CONT.

This session requires no previous musical experience, all welcome!

There will be an optional practice session on Saturday the 20th of June at 2pm – the link will be emailed to those who sign up.

Spaces limited.

Register here:

https://us02web.zoom.us/meeting/register/tZwkcuGuqTlpGNLWfvpapHi9DBAacwcyDZDBL

2pm – 3pm

Solidarity Songs with Jeannie Marsh

Join Climate Choir Melbourne for a lively session of choral activism!

Learn and sing songs ranging from simple, funky chants, to stirring 4-part harmony. Discover useful songs for your campaigning, from the vast repertoire of environmental-activism songs being created around the world.

Spaces limited.

Register here:

https://us02web.zoom.us/meeting/register/tZAsd-ispjsuGd0DHZJUCwh-SuPa4IV8ABbW

3.30pm – 4.30pm

Artist, Identity, Place: Reflections of the North West Coast Panel

In this session we will speak to three young artists from the North West Coast of Tasmania – Zoe Grey, a painter from Marrawah; Tim Cooper, a photographer from Burnie; and Laura Gillam, a painter from Ulverstone – and hear about their reflections of place, community and identity.

<https://us02web.zoom.us/j/84068437451>

6pm – 7.30pm

Art, Activism and Change: Panel Discussion

Art plays a fundamental role in influencing change and shifting narratives around climate and conservation. Join us for this massive panel of artists and activists to explore how art and activism can help us win change for the planet.

Join us for this massive panel of artists and activists including Guy Abrahams (Founder of Climart), Sarah McConnell (printmaker and activist), Charlotte Watson (Founder of the Black Finch Project), Jenny Weber (Campaign Manager at the Bob Brown Foundation) and Ramji (photographer and Activist) to explore how art and activism can help us win change for the planet.

<https://us02web.zoom.us/j/88466340733>

SUNDAY

MORNING WORKSHOPS

10am – 11am

Twining (String-Making) with Theresa Sainty

Join Theresa Sainty, a pakana woman, as she guides participants through traditional twining (string-making) and speaks about lutruwita and takayna.

The session will run for an hour and participants will need to bring raffia and anything from their gardens that they might like to use to create a mobile or windchime (shells, bits of wood, etc).

Spaces limited.

Register here:

<https://www.eventbrite.com.au/e/107663965820>

Letters to Our Home with Vivienne Glance

Letters to Our Home was a project coordinated in response to last summer's bushfire crisis, and involved written contributions from school children, grandparents, workers and business owners.

Vivienne will take participants through a guided writing session so that they can create their own compilation of written reflections about takayna, planet Earth and climate.

SUNDAY CONT.

More information about the project available here: mullamullapress.com/letters

Spaces limited.

Register here:

<https://www.eventbrite.com.au/e/107774470342>

Photographing Nature with Paul Hoelen

Paul Hoelen is a nationally acclaimed landscape photographer who has won multiple awards and coordinates multiple projects, including a current project focussed on the Tarkine. Join Paul to hear about his tips and techniques for capturing the beautiful landscapes around us.

Spaces limited.

Register here:

<https://www.eventbrite.com.au/e/107776037028>

Nature Journaling with Paula Peeters

Paula Peeters is an ecologist who realised in 2015 that there was more to science communication than facts and evidence – and that creativity is key in changing human behaviour. Join Paula as she talks participants through the practice and joy of nature journaling.

More about Paula here: paperbarkwriter.com/nature-journaling/

Spaces limited.

Register here:

<https://www.eventbrite.com.au/e/107776562600>

11am – 12pm

Telling Campaign Stories Through Film and Video: A Panel Discussion

Join National Geographic's photographer Bill Hatcher, Walkley Award finalist photographer and videographer Matt Newton, and multi-time Tasmanian Landscape Photographer of the year Paul Hoelen as they discuss the importance of capturing compelling imagery for environmental campaigns.

<https://us02web.zoom.us/j/88674746769>

12.30 – 1pm

Artist Talk – Sarah McConnell

Sarah McConnell is a past Tarkine in Motion artist who creates beautiful, politically driven prints and artists books with themes of indigenous rights, conservation and wilderness protection.

<https://us02web.zoom.us/j/86057247228>

1.30 – 3pm

Evoking Nature with Words: Favel Parrett and Bob Brown in Conversation

Join award-winning Australian author Favel Parrett and Bob Brown in a conversation about takayna / Tarkine, wild places and writing about landscape, followed by a Q&A.

<https://us02web.zoom.us/j/81214101201>

4pm – 5pm

Saving the Tarkine Through Art: Round Table Discussion

Join BBF Campaigners Jenny Weber and Molly Coburn for an open discussion around the future of art in our takayna / Tarkine campaign. This session is open to all artists and previous Tarkine in Motion participants.

Spaces limited.

Register here:

<https://us02web.zoom.us/meeting/register/tZ0ufuygpzgrGN02Ci5rfOW0D9ar6jXpsZ0I>

Accessing our Virtual Festival

All of our sessions will be hosted on Zoom. Zoom is a free online video communications tool which is perfect for hosting large meetings and conferences. It is simple to use – all you need is a phone, a computer or a tablet and a stable internet connection.

For sessions with limited spaces, you will need to register before the event – we suggest ASAP. Click the links listed under the sessions in this schedule to register. For sessions that don't ask you to register, you can simply click the link at the time the event begins.

We will send you a detailed 'how-to' guide in the days before the festival. There will be somebody on hand over the duration of the festival to assist you in getting access to these virtual events.