

Office of the Mayor
Township of Bordentown

Proclamation

WHEREAS, Eagle Scout, Ian Rauenbuhler, Troop 13, has achieved the rank of Eagle Scout on January 6, 2016 and will celebrate his Eagle Scout Court of Honor Ceremony on Saturday, April 30, 2016; and

WHEREAS, Ian is 18 years old and a senior at Bordentown Regional High School and lives with his mother and father, Eileen and Scott and his sister, Paige; and

WHEREAS, Ian's Eagle Scout project was installing hymnal holders on the backs of the pews at St. Mary's Church in Bordentown City, New Jersey; and

WHEREAS, Ian had to speak at every mass, for a weekend, to secure funds for his project and the outcome was successful; and

WHEREAS, Ian led a team of four scouts and four adults who worked for eight hours over a two day period; he and his father had to build a jig to insure uniform installation in all the pews; and

WHEREAS, the rank of Eagle Scout is nationally recognized as the highest tribute to a person's character, dedication and to the goals and ideals of scouting; and

WHEREAS, through his achievements in scouting, Ian stands as an exemplar and credit to his Troop, his community, his County, his State, as well as his family and friends.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jill Popko, Mayor, of the Township of Bordentown, County of Burlington and State of New Jersey, do hereby proclaim Ian Rauenbuhler an outstanding citizen and to recognize his achievements and his significant contribution within his community.
