

Office of the Mayor

Township of Bordentown

Proclamation

WHEREAS, The President of the United States signs a proclamation declaring November as Military Family Month every year and;

WHEREAS, This year the township would like to honor the military families in our township, the county, this state and the world for their commitment and sacrifices made by them; and

WHEREAS, In the month of November the military families serving around the world are honored and recognized for the many contributions that they are making in the support of the military and our great nation; and

WHEREAS, Military families serving face the holidays alone without their loved ones, special occasions, special moments like a birth of their child or the momentous moments that their children have on the sports fields, art centers, or classrooms; and

WHEREAS, Military families face many challenges and they must be resilient while facing their loved ones deployments, relocations and the numerous amount of transitions. They bind together to support and assist each other during the hardships in a most steadfast and honorable way.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jill Popko, Mayor, of the Township of Bordentown, County of Burlington and State of New Jersey, do hereby proclaim that the month of November as Military Family Appreciation Month and join the President and fellow colleagues in applauding and honoring these families that suffer with the loved ones being deployed who in turn ensure our country's freedom.
