Engineer's Report:

Greg Fusco, Kei Engineers, gave brief review of the engineers report:

Item #2: Will meet with Mayor as to projects to be included & feasibility of applying

Item #9: 2018 Camden County Open Space Application (Dog Park) No word yet

Item #12: Plans were received today, 6-18-18 for improvements to 2 Borough Homes (405 Paris Ave & 208 S. Hannevig) to be reviewed by Borough

Item #13(c): The USDA water project is nearing completion. Voucher #3 & change order #4 will be approved at 6-18-18 meeting.

PSE&G has completed paving of Browning Road

Presentation from commercial utility consultants by Stacia Scaduto

Explained that only residential electric supply would be involved, PSE&G would still be deliverer & take care of all billing, contract would be approximately 12-18 months, whole town would be automatically enrolled and residents can opt-out at any time with no fees and supply price would be lower than PSE& G supplier

Open to the Public

Gene Ambrose, Marlton, NJ was advised that his plan to convert the former CJ's Auto Body into an auto body & used car lot would be conditionally approved providing for

DOT approval, along with a site plan application addressing trash enclosure relocation & landscaping.

Jerry Granstrom, Brooklawn, NJ Advises council of speeders on Timber Blvd and very real possibility of children being hit, as he has seen it almost happen. Council agrees to put up 2 new stop signs on Timber Blvd with hope of slowing down speeders & avoiding any future accidents.
