

Birth Mother Community Group

Being lead by a birth mother herself, this is a safe place for birth moms to come & gather together to share encouragement, love, and support.

This group is for the brave women with a story to share & a glimpse of hope they are longing to encounter.

Where American Executive Centers—600 W. Germantown Pike, Plymouth Meeting, PA

When The group will meet every third Tuesday of each month beginning November 15th at 7:00 PM until 8:00 PM

Who This group is being run by a birth mother who placed through Bethany, to provide support and encouragement for other birthmothers who have made a choice in adoption. A counselor with Bethany Christian Services will be on site for support women as needed.
