- As you explore, you may come across a circuit station and more. Do what you can as you continue to scan. Note the strange things that weren't here before, keep having fun as this is not a bore.

(At each station, earn 10 points for trying and 10 points spotting something unusual.)

- Unscramble:

Go there. Look in little library.
Solve. _____

- Bridgeland has a main street – quite busy with cars. There are many fine eateries, restaurants & bars. One of these places has quite a history. A wine store and a dog groomer are part of the mystery. You may not know that, but if you are of age, you can go there and have a beer and a shave.

- There are two of these places down on 1st Ave.
It's something we all do like to have. Some call it pie, some call it flatbread.
For most of us, there's a different word in our head. It's something from Italy, a place far from home. The capital city shares the name – it's R_____

- A deer, mule or white-tailed

- Let's hear you! You know the sound. Post your video.
(bonus 5 points if you name the restaurant)

- Your one stop shop.
Hint: You've Got Mail!
- Find businesses starting with B.R.C.A.

This is a little farther, but you score 30 points to visit this photo worthy spot.

- Find the off-leash park and follow the paved path to the end mark.
Determine which animal frequented there but no longer dares.
