

Paid for and Authorized by Pennsylvania Democratic State Committee
205 State Street
Harrisburg, PA 17101
www.padems.com

Non-Profit Org
U.S. Postage PAID
PA Democratic
State Committee

B&W_2014143

“I sued Governor Corbett to protect funding for our seniors when he tried to privatize the lottery. And, you can count on me to protect you every step of the way.”

State Senator Tina Tartaglione
(PennLive, 1.14.2013)

VOTE
May 20
#116

newsworks

Powered by WHYY and You

11.22.2010

FOR WOMEN, A SMALL LEAP FORWARD

For the first time a woman has been elected to a leadership post in the Democratic caucus of the Pennsylvania state Senate. Last week Philadelphia State Senator Tina Tartaglione became the Democratic caucus secretary, making a part of her party's leadership team.

The Philadelphia Inquirer

10.13.2010

Tartaglione leaves wheelchair to walk on Senate floor

For the second time since being partially paralyzed by a 2003 boating accident, State Sen. Christine M. Tartaglione on Tuesday walked in the Senate chamber.

Re-Elect

Tina Tartaglione

The Democrat Who Has Fought Tom Corbett.
Fighting for us

www.teamtartaglione.com
TeamTartaglione@yahoo.com

Senator Tina Tartaglione has fought for you every step of the way.

Schools:

Senator Tartaglione stood up to Governor Corbett when he cut $1 billion from our kids' schools and she is working to restore our funding.

(Philadelphia Tribune, 1.30.2014)

Jobs:

Bringing the Cancer Treatment Center from Chicago to Philadelphia, creating over one thousand jobs here.

(Philadelphia Public Record, 3.13.2014)

Retirement:

Instrumental in creating PACE-NET which ensures that more seniors are covered for prescription medications.

H.B. 544 (Act 134) 1996

