TLRPAC ENDORSES RE-ELECTION OF STATE REP. BROOKS LANDGRAF

(Houston, TX) - Texans for Lawsuit Reform PAC issued the following statement today announcing its endorsement of the re-election of State Representative Brooks Landgraf in House District 81.

Rep. Landgraf is a committed conservative and a hard-working member of the Texas House. Rep. Landgraf understands the importance of lawsuit reform in creating jobs and keeping the Texas economy strong and he has worked to assure that the Texas civil justice system remains balanced and fair. TLRPAC is proud to endorse him.

Rep. Landgraf is a business lawyer in West Texas who was first elected to the Texas House in 2014. He serves on the Energy Resources Committee and Investments and Financial Services Committee.

Rep. Landgraf is a member of the Midland-Odessa Transportation Alliance board of directors, the Education Foundation board of directors, and the John Ben Shepperd Leadership Institute advisory council.

Brooks and his wife Shelby currently reside in Odessa. They attend St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Catholic Church.

House District 81 includes Ector, Winkler, Andrews, and Ward Counties.

TLRPAC is the political arm of Texans for Lawsuit Reform, the state's largest civil justice reform organization. TLR is a bipartisan, volunteer-led coalition with more than 18,000 supporters residing in 869 Texas communities and representing 1,266 different businesses, professions and trades.
