Expanding Ideas; Creating Change

“Very great change starts from very small conversations, held among people who care.” - Margaret Wheatley

The National Disability Insurance Scheme (NDIS) is a new way of supporting people with a disability in Australia. The NDIS will start to roll out in the Brisbane region from 1st July 2018.

This session responds to requests from workers and service providers to hear information usually provided to families and people with a disability about the NDIS.

The NDIS – Getting Informed

The NDIS – Getting informed workshops provide information relevant to families and people with a disability about the why, when and how of the National Disability Insurance Scheme (NDIS) in Queensland, and things they can do now to get ready.

The session recognises the important role that service providers and workers have in assisting people to prepare and transition smoothly to the new scheme.

Who should attend?

Support workers, service providers, people with disability, family members, close friends and allies can register for the workshop.

Community Resource Unit has a 29 year track record of working across Queensland to help people with a disability take control of their lives and take their place in their community.
