ULURP is the Uniform Land Use Review Procedure. It’s the process New York City uses to make sure most big land-use proposals, like neighborhood rezonings, get reviewed by the city’s elected officials and the public. Here’s the timeline...

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th></th>
<th></th>
<th></th>
<th></th>
<th></th>
<th></th>
<th></th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Period lasts:</td>
<td>60 days</td>
<td>30 days</td>
<td>60 days</td>
<td>50 days</td>
<td>5 days to veto</td>
<td>10 days to override veto w/ 2/3 majority</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

- COMMUNITY BOARD
  - Required PUBLIC HEARING

- BOROUGH PRESIDENT
  - Optional PUBLIC HEARING

- CITY PLANNING COMMISSION
  - Required PUBLIC HEARING

- CITY COUNCIL
  - Required PUBLIC HEARING
  - ULURP can end here

- MAYOR
  - ULURP can end here

- CITY COUNCIL
  - ULURP can end here

Get involved!