Vote Yes on Prop 55, 56 and 57 on Tuesday, November 8, 2016
In California, the Election is about much more than the next President. You may think your vote doesn’t matter, but your choices will directly impact your family, your job, and your neighborhood.

On November 8th, we will decide on 17 state initiatives - and even more local measures. What’s your vision for California? Do you believe in expanding opportunities for children to learn and be healthy? Do you believe in freedom and allowing people a chance to get their lives back on track? Do you believe government should limit the power of big corporations?

California voters have come together to find solutions to our problems. We have raised the minimum wage, expanded health care to millions, provided immigrants with drivers licenses, taxed the wealthy to fund schools, and offered more people a second chance for low-level crimes. We have made important steps forward. The November 8th election gives us our next chance to expand equality, justice and opportunity.

YES on Prop 55:

Fund Schools and Health Care by Taxing the Rich

Remember when teachers were being laid off, after school programs were closing and college fees were on the rise? That was just 5 years ago. Thanks to California voters, income taxes on the rich were raised to fund schools and critical services in 2012. Up to $8 billion annually now supports our schools, and this was the first step in stopping decades of painful budget cuts in California.

This tax on the wealthiest Californians expires in 2019. Schools will face deep budget cuts again unless California voters pass Prop 55. Prop 55 will extend this tax on the rich for 12 more years, making sure our schools have the resources to prepare our kids for the future.

SUPPORTERS: California Teachers Association, California Federation of Teachers, California Labor Federation, California School Employees Association, California Democratic Party, Dolores Huerta Foundation, Ella Baker Center for Human Rights

OPPONENTS: California Chamber of Commerce, Howard Jarvis Taxpayers Association, California Taxpayers Association, California Republican Party

Vote Tuesday, November 8
YES ON PROP 56:

Save Lives and Fund Health Care by Taxing Cigarettes

Smoking kills more people than car accidents, guns, illegal drugs, and AIDS combined. In every other state that has significantly raised its cigarette taxes, smoking rates have gone down. The US Surgeon General says tobacco taxes are especially effective in reducing youth smoking.

Proposition 56 increases taxes on cigarettes to fund health care and smoking prevention for children and seniors, and helps stop young people in our communities from starting dangerous lifelong habits. For decades, Big Tobacco has lied about the dangers of smoking, and targeted their advertisement in low-income and people of color communities. Prop 56 would help us stand up to these companies by investing in our health instead of lining their pockets.

SUPPORTERS: Service Employees International Union of California (SEIU), Next/Gen Climate Change, American Cancer Society Action Network, American Lung Association in California, California Democratic Party

YES ON PROP 57:

Unfair Prison Sentences Hurt Our Community

California’s criminal justice system is broken and unfair. People in our communities are more likely to be unjustly arrested and slapped with long prison sentences for minor crimes. This is unfair, tears apart families, and increases prison costs. We need to invest in schools, job training and rehabilitation programs that prevent crime. With a second chance, many can turn their lives around.

In recent years, Californians have voted to prioritize rehabilitation and education over “lock ‘em up and throw away the key” sentencing practices. Prop 57 is another step forward, allowing non-violent offenders to be eligible for parole after completing the first full term of their sentence if they demonstrate good behavior and complete education programs. Proposition 57 also protects young people from being tried as adults by requiring judges to carefully review all of the circumstances of their life before making a decision on whether they should be charged as an adult.

SUPPORTERS: Service Employees International Union of California (SEIU), California Democratic Party, Californians for Safety and Justice, California Federation of Teachers, League of Women Voters of California

VOTE YES ON PROP 58:
Allow Parent Choice in School Language Programs

One in five students in California learn English while they are in school. In a wave of anti-immigrant attacks in the 1990s, California passed Proposition 227 which eliminated bilingual education in public schools. This law has made it harder for children to excel in school by preventing teachers from teaching in multiple languages. Proposition 58 would allow school districts to establish language immersion programs, let parents choose the best program for their children and require all schools to ensure English proficiency.

SUPPORTERS: Senator Ricardo Lara, California Labor Federation, California Teachers Association, United Teachers Los Angeles, SEIU California, California Democratic Party, Advancement Project

OPPONENTS: Ron Unz (Palo Alto Software Developer/Entrepreneur and the sponsor of Prop 227 in 1998), California Republican Party

VOTE YES ON PROP 62 & NO ON PROP 66:
End the Death Penalty

There are two competing initiatives on the ballot that would change California’s Death Penalty system. If both pass, the initiative with the most votes will become law.

Executions are cruel and inhumane punishment. Research has shown that death sentences are more likely to be determined based on where you live, the color of your skin, and how good your defense attorney is, rather than the severity of the crime. And, many innocent people have been released from prison after being wrongfully convicted of crimes. No level of tinkering can make the death penalty more efficient, humane, or eliminate the possibility of using taxpayer dollars to kill innocent men and women.

Vote Yes on Prop 62 to end the Death Penalty in California, replacing it with life in prison without the possibility of parole.

Vote No on Prop 66 which would speed up the execution process.

PROP 62 SUPPORTERS & PROP 66 OPPONENTS:
ACLU California, Service Employees International Union of California (SEIU), California Teachers Democratic Association, California NAACP, League of Women Voters California, California Catholic Conference, Clergy and Laity United for Economic Justice (CLUE)

PROP 62 OPPONENTS & PROP 66 SUPPORTERS:
California District Attorneys Association, California Police Chiefs Association, California State Sheriffs Association, California Correctional Peace Officers Association, California State Sheriffs Association, California Republican Party

YES ON PROP 62
✓ Replaces the Death Penalty with life in prison without the possibility of parole.
✓ Saves $150 million each year by eliminating our state’s costly appeal system.
✓ Since 1978, California taxpayers have paid $5 billion for prisoners on death row and executed 13 people. That’s an average cost of more than $384 million per execution.

NO ON PROP 66
✓ Speeds up the death penalty appeals process to 5 years.
✓ Costs taxpayers tens of millions of dollars in attorney fees and high-security Death Row housing.
✓ Since 1973, 156 people have been released from Death Row after being found innocent because of DNA testing and new evidence.
