From June 7-11, 2015, the Saskatchewan Federation of Labour (SFL) is holding its annual Prairie School for Union Women (PSUW) an empowering, educational school for all women. The school is held at Waskesiu Lake Resort in Prince Albert National Park.

Why do you care?

Because we are offering scholarships for women from the following equality-seeking groups: Aboriginal women, women with disabilities, visible minority women, lesbian/bisexual women, youth (29 and under). Unemployed women and women in non-unionized jobs can also apply.

For the first time in 2015 the Canadian Labour Congress - Prairie Region is offering an additional scholarship for a woman to attend the PSUW entitled the Betty Pickering Memorial Scholarship. Betty passed away October of 2014 and spent much of her life dedicated to helping others. She was a tireless advocate for workers' struggles and passionate on issues of social justice, health reform and senior's issues. Betty was a role model for so many utilizing her strengths, determination and generosity to stand for what she so strongly believed in. We are honoured to offer this scholarship in her name.

The Prairie School for Union Women is four days of learning and sharing in a supportive environment. The goals of the school are to develop women's personal and leadership skills, to build solidarity among women workers, and to increase knowledge about the labour movement. You choose one class out of ten to attend.

To qualify you must be female and committed to learning in a feminist, anti-racist and inclusive environment. Scholarships include school registration, accommodation, meals and park entrance fee. Further financial needs would be considered.
