CapitolRiver Council Annual Meeting
Wednesday, June 19, 2019
5:30-7:30 p.m.
The Cabaret @Camp, 490 Robert Street North

From 4:30 to 5:30 p.m. attendees signed in and were invited to participate in five circle discussions about topics related to the Downtown Development Strategy.

CRC Board Chair Alesia Thompson Biro called the meeting to order at 5:30 p.m.

Chair Thompson Biro introduced Sigrid Johnson, Saint Paul resident and Parliamentarian, to serve as moderator, and facilitate the process of updating the CRC bylaws. Ms. Johnson provided an overview of the meeting ground rules.

Motion by Mary McCloud, seconded by Emily Larson, to approve the agenda. The motion carried.

CRC Executive Director Jon Fure provided a summary of the proposed changes to the CRC bylaws, as recommended by the CRC Board of Directors.

Motion by CRC Board of Directors to amend CRC Bylaws. The motion carried, unanimously.

Board member candidates each introduced themselves, explained how they were connected to Saint Paul’s District 17, and what they looked forward to accomplishing while on the board.

Sigrid Johnson asked if there were any other nominations. There were no other nominations.

Paul Mandell moved a white ballot, Alesia Thompson Biro seconded the motion. The motion carried. The entire ballot of board members was elected unanimously: Chris Beckstrom, Jenn Hensley, Ann Idzik, Emily Larson, Linda McBrayer, Shevek McKee, Christopher Melendez, Crystal Meriwether, and Jonathan Reisetter.

Attendees were invited to continue participating in the circle discussions. A facilitator for each group presented common themes from the discussion to the whole group.

The meeting adjourned at 7:01 p.m.
