

From: Helen Hutchison
Date: Thu, Apr 29, 2021 at 10:45 AM
Subject: Meeting technology

Commissioners —

This is a reminder that while the 2010 Commission met in person, all meetings were streamed and allowed for virtual participation by the public. The question you are facing as the pandemic limitations lift is about you and how you meet — and not about how the public can participate. You should absolutely continue to ensure that all of your meetings are accessible online, and that the public can participate remotely.

Helen Hutchison

Helen Hutchison (she/her)
League of Women Voters of California