Attached is a sample mapping plan using the 2010 census and apportionment data. It uses watershed boundaries from the USGS to generate California congressional districts.