Tell us about your community. What are your shared interests? What brings you together? What is important to your community?

My community of Boyle Heights, located in Los Angeles California. Boyle Heights is predominately Latino and people of color. Boyle Heights is colorful and multi-generational. My own experience growing up in Boyle Heights music and local community events bring our community together. I believe that it is important that our community has ways to keep its citizens of my community healthy by being surrounded by freeways it is important that we find ways to have cleaner air.

Are there nearby areas you want to be in a district with? Nearby areas you don't want to be in a district with? Why or why not?

I would like the commission to maintain our community together. In our community we speak the same language, Spanish. My community is colorful, multi-generational and filled with youth development. Like other community members we would attend local events located at parks and at the Plaza. I believe it is important that our community is protected from future increases of pollution and what threatens the right of our community to have clean air, water, land, and food.

Is there anything else you can tell us about your community?

I have lived in Boyle Heights my whole life. Some of Boyle Heights historical landmarks include Mariachi Plaza, on the corner of First Street and Boyle Avenue, El Mercadito, and Evergreen Cemetery. In our community we speak the same language, spanish. My community is colorful, multi-generational and filled with youth development. Like other community members we would attend local events located at parks and at the Plaza.