I support Sunnyvale's continued inclusion in District 17, a district which contains similar employment and business interests based on high technology economics. Additionally, another reason for supporting Sunnyvale's continued inclusion in the current district is that District 17 is an Asian-majority district and a move to another district might improperly dilute a minorities' vote by separating a minority community between several election districts.

Thank you for the opportunity to comment.

~Janet Harford