Community members in the area of North Shore located in the Eastern Coachella Valley have brought up the importance and the need of having some speed bumps and sidewalks in this community since there is cars not respecting speed limits and there isn't much space or opportunity for residents to go for walks and feel safe to step to the side when these cars pass by.