

Public Map Input Sessions: Oct 21-23, 2021

Background: The California Citizens Redistricting Commission will hold Public Map Input Sessions on Oct 21-23, 2021 to allow for presentations of multi-district plans by the public. Presentations will provide an opportunity to showcase submitters' ideas, potential solutions and specific district boundaries. Some of these plans will only be partial plans covering part of the state, while others may cover the entire state resembling full draft plans. The Commission will host

Overview/Public Guidance for Presentations:

- Stay within allotted time
- Presentations will be virtual
- Appointments are required
- Maps and written narratives must be submitted in advance
- Presentations should provide overview of process and decision making when creating maps
- Maps should be submitted via shapefile and PDF to the CRC or by using Draw My CA Districts (online redistricting tool) or Draw My CA Plugin for QGIS (desktop GIS software)

Appointment Options:
