Every ten years, after the federal census, California must re-establish the boundaries of its Congressional, State Senate, State Assembly, and State Board of Equalization districts to reflect new population data and shifting populations. The Voters FIRST Act gave this power to California citizens ensuring that new and fair political boundaries are drawn without special interests, politics, and political influence. Join us to hear from Commissioner Kennedy, who resides in Morongo Valley, for a presentation on "California Redistricting Basics."
