

COUNCIL FOR EDUCATION IN THE COMMONWEALTH Annual Conference 2021

Date: 29 & 30 July 2021 | Time: 11:00 - 13:00 (GMT+1) | Venue: Virtual

EDUCATION, THE PANDEMIC AND GLOBAL SOLUTIONS FOR A SUSTAINABLE FUTURE

The Council for Education in the Commonwealth Annual Conference 2021 will showcase innovative approaches developed by teachers and educational professionals, in the face of the pandemic, to deliver education to young people, wherever they might be located.

The conference will:

- Offer a wide range of examples from a mix of countries including Ghana, India, Tanzania, United Kingdom, Zambia;
- Provide a forum for delegates to discuss and contribute from their own experiences, including through parallel workshops;

- Review the impact of Covid on the delivery of education and the implications for achieving the 2030 Sustainable Development Goals for education;
- Consider how to encourage the global dissemination of innovations and facilitate the sharing of ideas for the benefit of students, wherever they might live.

The conference will be virtual and will run for two hours on each of two days. The programme content for each day will be different.

The conference welcomes all delegates: teachers, education professionals, policy makers, NGO staff, government representatives, companies involved in developing educational solutions and the general public - wherever in the world you might be located.
