MANDATORY QUESTION(S)

In 250 words or less, please provide a response to one or both (your choice) of the below questions.

- In the context of human rights, what does the 2019 HRRR Conference Theme of 'Honour – Respect – Recognize – Reconcile' mean to you?
AND / OR
- How do you advocate for human rights in your workplace or community?

IMPORTANT NOTE: The self-identification options used in this form attempts to reflect current terminology as much as possible while abiding by the language contained within the CEIU By-laws and Regulations. CEIU recognizes and respects the differences between gender identity, expression, and orientation. The HRRR committee is mandated to have gender parity - which is currently defined as female and male. In your equity caucus you will be standing for election and/or casting your vote for female or male candidates.

There is no intent to offend, exclude, or marginalize any member of any community, including the gender and sexually diverse community.

Caucus Gender: Female Male

Gender: Female Male Transgender Nonbinary Two-Spirit None

If your gender is not listed above, please specify _____

IMPORTANT NOTE: Individuals may self-identify with more than one equity group. Please place a number next to each equity group you self-identify with ranking your preference (1 = first preference, 2 = second preference etc) to attend that group's caucus. The assigned caucus for selected delegates will depend on the quantity of applications received for each equity group combined with a review of your response to the mandatory question(s).

I self-identify as a member of the equity group(s) below and rank my caucus preference(s) as:

First Nations / Métis / Inuit _____
