

CALL FOR RESOLUTIONS DEADLINE EXTENDED

2021 CEIU National Triennial Convention August 16th to 20th, 2021

August 14, 2020

With the COVID-19 pandemic, the Canada Employment and Immigration Union (CEIU) has had to postpone its National Triennial Convention from its original dates of September 11th to 15th, 2020 to August 16th to 20th, 2021.

With the CEIU Convention now being held in August 2021, the National Executive has voted to extend the deadline to submit resolutions to the CEIU Convention to March 31st, 2021.

Numbers of resolutions have already been received and this extension of deadline will only provide national, regional or local meetings of members to come together and submit new ones.

CEIU wants to remind everyone that with the present pandemic, locals, regional councils, or any other official meetings of members should consider holding one or more meetings by Zoom Conferencing, Skype, or by other means as we are unsure of when everyone will be returning to their workplaces. Do not wait until you can hold a face-to-face meeting. Set one up now with the many options available to ensure that your local, your regional council, or other official meetings of members can prepare and submit their resolutions to be dealt with at the 2021 CEIU Convention.

Resolutions should be aimed at strengthening, improving, and increasing CEIU and/or PSAC's capacity to fulfill its mandate. However, resolutions must be limited to actions which CEIU and/or PSAC can undertake. Any proposed changes to the CEIU By-Laws or the PSAC Constitution must be submitted in the form of a resolution.

For further information on who can submit resolutions or on how to write a resolution or on how to submit your resolution(s), please refer to the previous Call for Resolutions, dated January 29th, 2020 by clicking here.
