CROWN PROSECUTOR GRANT APPLICATION

A limited number of grants are available to support the attendance of Crown prosecutors from across Canada at the Animal Cruelty Prosecution Conference in Toronto, November 20th, 2019.

Eligibility

Applicants should meet the following criteria to qualify for a grant to attend the conference.

The applicant:

- is a Crown prosecutor
- has demonstrated interest in animal cruelty prosecutions
- has a commitment to networking with and facilitating the engagement of other prosecutors in their province on animal cruelty prosecution
- has a commitment to providing animal cruelty case-law support to fellow Canadian Crown and the NCPAC's case law database
- has viewed NCPAC's foundational animal cruelty prosecution webinars

Funds that will be covered by the grant

Successful applicants will be granted funds to cover the following expenses:

(1) Travel within Canada to attend the conference

If flying or taking the train:

- a return ticket (economy class fare), including 1 checked bag
- transfers between airport/railway station and hotel (up to $50)
- shuttle to/from the airport

If driving:

- mileage ($0.45/km, not to exceed the equivalent economy airfare)
- hotel parking for three nights

(2) Hotel accommodation

Three nights' accommodation (November 19th, 20th, 21st) at the Chelsea Hotel

(3) Registration fee to attend the conference

(4) Meals

Please note that breakfast, lunch and coffee breaks will be provided during the conference (November 20th, 21st and 22nd). Dinner is at the expense of participants.

Application process

Please submit your completed grant application form to Dayna Desmarais (dayna@humanecanada.ca). Please include "NCPAC Grant Application" in the subject line.

Supporting documentation and reimbursement
